Public Listening Session Summaries
August 27th, 2025, and August 28th, 2025

The Economic Subcommittee (“Subcommittee”) of the Georgia Child Support Commission (“Commission”) held two public listening sessions in preparation for the 2026 Economic Study, in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 19-6-53. One in-person session was held on August 27th, 2025, and a virtual session was held on August 28th, 2025 via webinar. Two (2) Subcommittee members attended the meetings. The Subcommittee members in attendance were:

Dr. Roger Tutterow, Chair

Charles “Chuck” Clay

Program Manager, Kurt Bryan, Staff Attorney, JoAnna Deering, and Program Coordinator, Lazaro Quintanilla, served as staff for these meetings. A public announcement was placed on the Commission website on August 20th informing the public about the listening sessions and public comments for the 2026 Economic study. An email went out the Commission’s mailing list on August 20th, also informing stakeholders about the listening sessions and public comments.

On August 27th, the in-person session was held at 4619 Sheraton Dr #400, Macon, GA, 31210. Dr. Roger Tutterow called the session to order at approximately 12:10 p.m. Dr. Tutterow announced the purpose of the meeting was to accept input from Georgia citizens regarding the 2026 Economic Study for Georgia’s Child Support Commission. The listening session was structured so that people would have five minutes to speak, in the order in which they registered or appeared into the session. It was also noted that the Commission website is hosting a registration link on the homepage for people to leave written comments. There were no attendees present at the session, and thus no public comments were received. The session adjourned at 1:45 p.m.

On August 28th, the virtual session was held via online webinar.
